Summary and Highlights of First Phase Goal Attainment

School Characteristics and Features in First Phase of the plan

In the first phase of the plan, Tzuhi has achieved great results in fulfilling its social responsibilities. From the development aspects of “implementing college social responsibilities, promoting social innovation of teachers and students” and “strengthening regional industry-college links”, we form teacher and student planning and executive team to promote development of local activation and innovation. Through the implementation of the plan, manage the vertical connection of junior high schools and support local educational institutions, care and deeply cultivate the community, take root in junior high school technical and vocational education, provide local services, promote community development, drive the creation of community industries, and utilize the resource of technical and vocational education for promoting the development of technical and vocational education talents are also the highlights. Among the projects, the “highlights and features”, such as: host the unique innovative “Medical and Nursing Camp”. Another example is that the Nursing Department strengthens cooperation with local health centers and care strongholds to provide health promotion services for the elderly in the community care centers. Actively responding to the government’s long-term elderly care policy.

For making resources more public of higher education, in order to assist economically and culturally disadvantaged students, the school raised funds to set up “Emergency Assistance Fund”, “Life Grant”, “Tzuhui Love Scholarship”, “Yulin Aboriginal Free Lunch” ...etc. to support our help needed students. Tzuhui was invited by the Taiwan’s Technical and Vocational Education to share as the model school of the study and life of economically and culturally disadvantaged students. This is the biggest affirmation and the highlight. In addition, through the school’s IR system and its data analysis, the drop-out rate (including disadvantaged students) of Tzuhui has been significantly reduced. Through improving the assistance and trying hard to seek help of social support, Tzuhi effectively helped children in southern Taiwan to study without worry their family economy.

For implementing teaching innovation and improving teaching quality, Tzuhi lies in cooperating with the curriculum, cultivating students’ fundamental abilities, and conducting related activities to achieve the effect of “Strengthening Students’ fundamental Abilities”. In addition, through the “Development of Innovative Teaching Models”, students are motivated to learn. Also, teaching equipment is continuously updated and the “Optimization of Learning Environment” is executed. With the aid of equipment and the improvement of the teaching environment, students’ learning effectiveness will be fully improved. At the same time, on this basis, we further construct an “Interdisciplinary Learning Environment” which can “Cultivate Students’ Future Employability”. Finally, by means of “Constructing an Ecological Environment for Innovation and Entrepreneurship”, students can further learn entrepreneurship during the course study.

Excellent Executive Performance

After the implementation of the first phase of the plan, Tzuhui Department of Nursing fresh graduates passing rate of the national examination for the “Registered Nurse” is higher than 80%. The Department of Early Childhood Education acquired the industry-college cooperation project exceeds 10 million NTD that improves students’ internship opportunities, promotes teachers’ industry service and builds up local links.

Excellent Special Cases

Tzuhui Department of food and beverage students participated in the 2nd National Inter-School Baking Competition of President Chan Store Cooperation Cup and won the Jury Award, making their products sold on 7-11 and earn a profit for scholarship; Department of Nursing participated in the Ministry of Education’s Taiwan Skilled Nursing Student Practice Competition, the Taiwan Skilled Nursing Students Practical Skills Competition, and the National Nursing Practical Skills Competition, and the Ministry of Labor’s Nursing Students Practical Skills Competition all have achieved outstanding result
